WHAT?

The journey begins at the jetty in Korpoström, where a charter boat is waiting to take you out on a breathtaking adventure. We head towards the island of Konungskär in the Archipelago Sea National Park, where we are served lunch made with local ingredients.

After lunch, it's time to explore the island more closely. Under the guidance of a nature guide, we move along the rugged nature path and get to learn more about the National Park and the Unesco Biosphere area we are in. To finish, we stop and take in the nearby archipelago with all our senses.

The journey culminates at Restaurant Back Pocket, where a world-class six-course tasting menu is served.

WHERE?

On the beautiful archipelago island Korpo, about 80 km from Turku. You can get here easily by car, bus or bicycle.

Korpo is well connected to the mainland via two ferries that are free and operate around the clock, all year round. During the summer with about 15 min. intervals, in winter slightly less frequently.
