WHAT?

Starting in Nagu, you take the connecting boat to the exuberant archipelago island of Brännskär, from where you continue by sea towards Korpo.

The first night is spent in the unique Villa Vintage, bursting with history. You can choose to walk here or take the bus from Turku. After a lovely breakfast, it's time to hike towards Kirjais along idyllic small roads. Take the opportunity to eat something tasty in the active archipelago village before it's time to go out into the outer archipelago and the island of Brännskär. Dinner awaits here in the small cafe and the night is spent in a cozy cabin. During the second day, you can enjoy the nature path on Brännskär before it's time to head onward to Korpo. After a short hike from the harbor of Pärnäs, a 6-course tasting menu awaits at Restaurant Back Pocket as a luxurious end to the hike. The last night is spent in Hotel Nestor's comfortable beds.

The package is self-guided and calculated for four (4) people.

WHERE?

- The Finnish archipelago, along parts of the pilgrimage route St Olav Waterways.
- The journey starts in Nagu, to where you can easily take the bus. For a total pilgrimage experience, you can also hike from Turku along St Olav Waterways.
