WHAT?

This trip takes you from the heart of Turku straight out to the beautiful archipelago. The first sea voyage with the most beautiful archipelago views takes you and your friends to the historic island of Seili. Here you can experience one of the archipelago's most fascinating history and explore the exciting surroundings.

The second day begins with a delicious breakfast in the hotel's courtyard, after which a boat ride takes you to the bustling guest marina of Nagu. Here you will stay at the charming hotel Lanterna. In Nagu you can experience the archipelago's most popular and most lively atmospheres. Here you will find restaurants, shops and attractions for many tastes.

The third day begins in the hotel garden, where a breakfast is enjoyed. Then it's time to travel further along the archipelago's popular ring road to the unique island of Korpo. In Korpo you can enjoy the tranquility of the archipelago. Accommodation takes place in B&B Solvillan with its lovely retro atmosphere in a beautiful setting. In Korpo you will find many activities such as kayak rental, boat trips, fishing trips and many interesting cultural events.

WHERE?

The journey starts at the Aura river in Turku and takes you via the historic island of Seili to the lively Nauvo, and then ends on the island of Korpo. The journey is best done by bicycle, but can also be done by bus.

The Turku archipelago is best known for its ring roads and this trip gives a taste of these, but with a slight twist.
